THOSE CURRENTLY SERVING IN THE MILITARY

USAF Airman James Perez

Cpl. Michael Koval, USMC

PFC Jonathan Cuervo, USMC

PFC Anthony Imperato, USMC

Let us keep them in our prayers.

In honor of the Military serving our country at home and abroad, we invite you to remain after the Recessional Song at all weekend Masses to recite three Hail Mary's for their safety.

Dear Parish Family:

Often when we think of Christ with his title of "King" we think about the Last Judgement. At our celebration today we will indeed hear about Christ in the end-times. Yet the purpose of our gathering here is not to become fearful about what is to come, but rather to support the one another in the tasks at hand, encouraged by our good and faithful Shepherd. This way, when judgement time comes, we can be ready and rejoice over the good deeds that have built up God's kingdom.

PRAYER FOR LIFE: That God's people, who proclaim that death has been conquered in Christ, may be active in defending His gift of life, we pray.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

“Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.’ Then the righteous will answer him and say, ‘Lord when...’”

It is easy to recall this teaching, the well known corporal works of mercy. It is easy to place a name and face on friends or agencies who carry out their tremendous works of service. It is easy to offer support through donations to enable others to carry out their mission.

As we reflect upon these signs of compassion and concern, and admire the dedication of those who serve the needs of others, why not ask the question that causes people to be in such vulnerable conditions. A famous Brazilian bishop once declared, ‘When I take care of the poor, people praise me. When I ask why they are poor, I am called a communist.’ Dom Helder Camara wants us to ask the question which leads me to help alleviate the suffering of others. It may be my active involvement in direct service or maybe indirect service through legislative action, helping understand the issues involved or both.

On this great feast of Christ the King take time to answer the question posed to Jesus and myself ‘When...?’ – His Word Today by Rev. William J. Reilly
